KINGSTONE IM boosts team with Sarah Verheyen

Munich, 23th of September 2019 – KINGSTONE Investment Management GmbH (KINGSTONE IM) is continuing its course for growth and has hired Sarah Verheyen as its Head of Portfolio Management. In this newly created position, Verheyen (34) is responsible for the company's investment strategy and reports directly to Dr Tim Schomberg, Managing Partner at KINGSTONE IM.

Sarah Verheyen has more than ten years of experience in the property industry, in particular in asset and investment management and transactions. Before joining KINGSTONE IM, she spent seven years at JLL and, before its acquisition in 2016, at ACREST in Berlin, where she was a member of the Executive Committee in charge of Acquisitions & Sales in Asset Management. In the past two years alone, her track record covers a transaction volume of EUR 570 million GAV. As an asset and portfolio manager, she oversaw properties worth more than EUR 425 million. Further former employers include IVG Asset Management and STRABAG Property and Facility Services.

Dr Tim Schomberg commented: "We will achieve our business goal of becoming the investment management boutique of choice for international investors in Germany only by working with experts who have the right technical expertise, knowledge of the market and an excellent network. In Sarah Verheyen we have found such an expert for our team."

Sarah Verheyen said: "KINGSTONE IM's strategic business model and its team convinced me to join the company. I anticipate a great deal of opportunities for investors and I look forward to advancing the firm's international platform by creating bespoke investment strategies and forming lasting strategic partnerships. Together we will tap that potential for our customers."
